GUIDING PRINCIPLES

LEAVE OUT THE SOLITARY ACTION. GIRLS GUIDES FOUND THEIR OWN MOVEMENT IN 1910 AND OVER A CENTURY LATER ARE STILL EMPOWERING GIRLS OF ALL AGES TO GET OUT THERE AND MAKE A GO.

WORDS: SHARI TAGESEABURG
PHOTOS: ALIX SWEENEY

I was wanted to see how a formal moulding organization would look with further from the Girl Guides. Since 1910, Girl Guides have been helping girls and women to develop leadership and life skills. The Girl Guides of Canada (GSC) is a national organization that provides programs and activities for girls and young women aged 5 to 24.

The Girl Guides of Canada (GSC) has grown to over 200,000 members and volunteers, with programs designed to help girls and young women become confident, capable, and caring leaders. The organization promotes leadership, personal growth, and community service.

I visited a local Girl Guides meeting and observed how the girls and leaders were interacting and learning. The meeting was engaging and the girls were active and engaged in the activities. The leaders were encouraging and providing guidance.

The Girl Guides of Canada (GSC) provides a wide range of programs and activities for girls and young women. These programs are designed to help girls and young women develop their leadership skills, personal growth, and community service.

Throughout the organization, the focus is on building strong, healthy, and confident girls and young women. The organization believes in empowering girls and young women to take on leadership roles and make a difference in their communities.

The Girl Guides of Canada (GSC) provides programs and activities that are age-appropriate and designed to meet the needs of girls and young women. The organization is committed to providing a safe and supportive environment for girls and young women to learn and grow.

The Girl Guides of Canada (GSC) is a non-profit organization that relies on donations and community support to continue providing programs and activities for girls and young women.

The Girl Guides of Canada (GSC) is proud to be a leader in the field of youth development and continues to innovate and evolve to meet the changing needs of girls and young women.

For more information about the Girl Guides of Canada (GSC) and how you can support their programs, please visit www.girlguides.ca.