GUIDES QUEENSLAND CERTIFICATE RELATING TO INCORPORATION

This is to certify that the State Council of Guides Queensland is an incorporated body under s.3 of the Guides Queensland Act 1970.

Attached is a copy of the title page and Section 3 of that legislation.

Guides Queensland has been advised by the Department of Justice and Attorney General that this is sufficient proof of Incorporation of the Association.

Best regards

3 Incorporation of the Council

- (1) The corporation named the Girl Guides Association (Queensland, Australia) as formerly established is continued in existence under the name Guides Queensland.
- (2) The corporation has perpetual succession and shall have a common seal.
- (3) The corporation—
 - (a) may sue and be sued in its corporate name; and
 - (b) may, in its corporate name, purchase, take on lease, hold, mortgage, and exchange, and lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of, real property and personal property; and
 - (c) may invest, in investments authorised by law for the investment of trust funds, any moneys of the corporation; and
 - (d) may borrow money either upon security or otherwise, and issue debentures; and
 - (e) may lend any of the moneys of the corporation to such persons, for such purposes, and upon such terms and conditions, as it may think best calculated to promote the objects of the Association; and
 - (f) may erect, maintain, and improve such buildings, and purchase or hire such machinery, plant, and equipment, as it may think best calculated to promote the objects of the Association; and
 - (g) may do and suffer all such other acts and things as bodies corporate may by law do and suffer.

4 Registration of Royal Charters and constitution

- (2) The chief executive shall keep in the chief executive's office all copies of the documents and records transmitted to the chief executive pursuant to this section and shall register the Royal Charters and constitution and any amendments thereto as if they were the rules of an incorporated association.
- (3) Every document to which the Girl Guides Association Act 1970 applied, of force and effect immediately before the
