

“Girl Scribes!”

The Governor’s Creative Writing Competition for Girl Guides in Queensland

Conditions of Entry

1. Closing date for entries is January 29, 2023.
2. Guide’s must register for the competition via ‘What’s on’ on the Guides QLD website and pay the registration fee of $5 to participate. Profits will be given to the Indigenous Literacy Foundation.
3. Winners will be announced at a state engagement in February 2023
4. Entries must be either emailed to voladmin@guidesqld.org or posted to Guides Queensland, PO BOX 996, Marsden LPO, QLD, 4132
5. No late entries will be accepted
6. All sections are open to Youth Members of Girl Guides Queensland
7. There is a limit of one entry per category per Guide.
8. Each entry must be the Guide’s original work.
9. Each Guide’s work needs to address in some way the theme of Exploring what makes Queensland great!
10. Guides are asked to keep a copy of their work. Entries will not be returned.
11. Girl Guides Queensland retains the right to publish the prize-winning entries. Copyright remains with the author.
12. Each entry in the prose section should be accompanied by a word count to appear on both the work itself and the entry form.
13. Each entry must be typed and printed on A4 size paper if being posted. Please ensure that each entry is carefully proofread before it is submitted.
14. Each entry must be accompanied by a completed Submission Details Form.
15. Each Guide is encouraged to keep a working journal, including drafts, which may need to be submitted for verification of authorship.
16. Winning entries will be published in Queensland on the Go.